

CAMEROON

2015 and 2016 SOLD OUT, now booking 2017

The FARO EAST camp is located on the northeast side of the Faro River, near the village of Koti Manga. It is less than three hours from Garoua, mainly on asphalt road. No charter is required. The area is about 200,000 acres. The camp has a splendid view dominating the savannah, and is made of solid Boukarous around a big Bungalow used as a dining room. Each Boukarou is fully equipped with toilet, wash basin, hot and cold water shower, 220 volt electricity. The rooms are air conditioned. The cuisine is first class. The season is January - April.

The Faro area is known for the abundance of Lord Derby Eland as well as an outstanding density of other Group A species: Western Roan, Western Buffalo, Lions and Elephants. The remaining game (Hartebeest, Bushbuck, Reedbuck, Duikers, etc.) is called Group B. The hunting permit in Cameroon allows up to 2A and 4B. All prices are in Euros (E).

Eland + Roan or Buffalo + 4 B, 12 days, 40,000 Euros.

Price and availability of importable Lion or non-importable Elephant on request.

Once booked, your base safari price is guaranteed, but trophy fees and govt. rules are subject to change at any time.
